ZIFF Mission

GATHER | CELEBRATE | CONNECT

These are the words we have chosen to help guide and direct our thoughts, operations and mission at Zions Indie Film Fest, everything we do and stand for as a festival can be summarized in these three words.

GATHER

We gather because we love film, we love being together to see what's next and who's next.

CELEBRATE

We celebrate the blood, sweat and heart of everyone that has made a film or a music video. We celebrate the different stories being told, we celebrate everyone's love of film and the festival experience.

CONNECT

We connect because connection with others is the essence of life and that's what this festival will do. It will bring us all together to celebrate and connect with old friends, make new friends, and meet the filmmakers and cast of these amazing selected films and videos. It is vital to be part of something bigger than ourselves.
